Children: How to Avoid Regrets

Proverbs 22:6, 15; Ephesians 6:4, Colossians 3:21, Acts 16:31

1. As a child, were you encouraged by a Dad (or father figure) who fathered your heart, or were you fathered for performance?
2. According to today's texts, happens when children are either left to their own devices, or have fathers who discourage them? What are the implications for our own fathering?
3. Which of the five practical ideas mentioned today—freedom to be kids, protection from the world, encourage and don't embitter, spending time with them, and guardianship through prayer—have been strong points for you? Where would you like to improve? What's your plan?
