Paul: the principle of a passionate life

Acts 26:13-20, various

1. Are you a passionate man living for the glory of God, a man who was once like that but has lost his passion, or a man who has yet to really find it? Explain your answer.
2. Biblically, what was the source of Paul's passion? Biblically, how did he sustain his passion?
3. What is there in either your walk with God or your work for God that needs to change for you to live a (more) passionate, difference-making, "shake the gates of hell and set up the kingdom of heaven on earth" kind of life?
