

Honoring Your Wife's Emotions

1 Peter 3:7

1. How do you typically respond when someone gets emotional with you? How does it make you feel? Why is that?
2. If you asked your wife if you honor her emotions well, what would she say? Can you think of a specific recent experience? What happened and how did you respond?
3. Do you really believe that sacrificially loving your wife (and others) will make you happy? Why or why not? Can you think of a specific instance where God made this true for you? Share it with the group.
