How To Love The Way God Wants Us To Love

Matthew 22:34-40, Mark 12:28-34

1. We all know what God wants most is for us to love Him with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength; and our neighbor as ourselves. Do you find that easy or difficult? Explain your answer.
2. Why did Jesus say there is “no greater commandment” than loving God and loving your neighbor according to Luke 10: 25, 28 and Matthew 22:40?
3. Read Romans 13:9-10 and Galatians 5:14. What are some things love can do that money, power, skill, intellect, reason, persuasion, will power, or brute force can't do? What is a dispute, difference of opinion, or conflict you're having with a spouse, family member, friend, or co-worker that you could try to resolve with love?
