What Does It Look Like To Follow Jesus in Practice?

Matthew 25:31-46, The Parable of the Sheep and the Goats

1. What's a recent example of you being on the giving or receiving end of the kind of charity described by Jesus in today's passage?
2. While we may not be saved "by" works, we are most definitely saved "for" works—as today's passage amply clarifies. What does it say about us if we don't help a person in genuine need when it is within our power to act?
3. How are your resources for helping others right now? Are you filled to the overflow in your walk with Christ? Or are you emotionally fragile? Of course, by feeding the hungry and so on, Jesus never meant helping others at the expense of those for whom we are already responsible. Nevertheless, who is someone in need right now that you feel inspired to help?
