

Series: Hanging Out With Jesus

Why There Is Still Hope For Every Judas

Matthew 26:1-5, 14-16; Mark 14:1-2, 10-11, Luke 21:37-22:6

1. Without naming names, can you describe someone you have written off as beyond redemption—perhaps you think of them as a Judas? It could be a neighbor, co-worker, or even a family member. If applicable, how has today's message changed the way you think about that person?
2. In today's passage, we saw that the betrayal of Judas, while sinful, was also part of a larger plan. How did God use the sin of Judas to sovereignly accomplish his greater purpose? Does this help or confuse how you understand the relationship between our free will and the sovereignty of God?
3. How will today's lesson inform your life and ministry to disciple men and your family more effectively?

Series: Hanging Out With Jesus

Why There Is Still Hope For Every Judas

Matthew 26:1-5, 14-16; Mark 14:1-2, 10-11, Luke 21:37-22:6

Note-Taking Outline

The Big Idea: _____

