Word of Comfort for Troubled Hearts

John 14:1-7

1. What happens to your faith when you get knocked off balance, when you are under attack, or when your heart is troubled?
2. In the Upper Room, the disciples were rocked by the betrayal and disappearance of Judas, by Jesus announcing that He was going away and they couldn't come with him, and by the prediction that Peter was about to deny three times that he even knew Jesus. Why did Jesus choose the specific words of today's text to start comforting His disciples?
3. As a disciple-maker, what did you pick up or get reminded of today that will help you personally or as you minister to someone? Be specific!

Our mission is to help you grow as a disciple and disciple-maker.
