Holy Sex

1 Thessalonians 4:3-7, Proverbs 5:15-20

1 Corinthians 6:12-7:9

1. As a man, is there anything you daydream about more than sex? Why do you think men—and you—spend so much time thinking about sex?
2. How is our sexual life connected to our personal holiness according to 1 Thessalonians 4:3-7? Why is that according to 1 Corinthians 6:13, 18-19? According to these verses, how is sexual sin different from other sin?
3. Is it sex you want, or is it something sex represents? Explain your answer by responding to the big idea: “A husband needs to be loved physically so he can love emotionally, and a wife needs to be loved emotionally so she can love physically.” What have we discussed about the differences between men and women today that can elevate your love life?
