

Series: Sex and the Man in the Mirror

How To Discuss Sex With Your Children

Mark 10:2-9, Psalm 78:1-8, Leviticus 18 and 20

1. What was your sex education like?
2. What is the biblical way of passing along the commands and decrees of God to our children according to Psalm 78:5? And why, according to 78:5-8? Do you think God intended His principles about sex to be included in this “passing along?”
3. If you’re not already there, what would need to happen for you to make sex education an ongoing conversation in your home? What are a couple of things you’ve picked up today that you would like to try out?

RESOURCES:

For teenaged boys: The Young Man in the Mirror

For dads: The Dad in the Mirror

Not distinctly Christian, but excellent:

- <http://www.todaysparent.com/family/parenting/age-by-age-guide-to-talking-to-kids-about-sex/>
- <https://www.psychologytoday.com/blog/you-and-your-adolescent/201102/talking-your-teen-about-sex>
- <http://www.familycircle.com/teen/parenting/sex-talk/talking-to-teens-about-sex/>
- <http://www.drphil.com/articles/article/51>

Series: Sex and the Man in the Mirror

How To Discuss Sex With Your Children

Mark 10:2-9, Psalm 78:1-8, Leviticus 18 and 20

The Big Idea: _____

