You Can Always Be A Great Dad

Mark 12:29-31, Deuteronomy 6:4-9, Psalm 78:1-7,
Colossians 3:21

1. What is, or was, your dad like? Was he an encourager? How has that affected you? How is it affecting your own approach to being a great dad?
2. From today's verses, how would you summarize the goal of being a great dad?
3. Is your natural instinct to "father for performance" or to "father the heart?" What have you learned or been reminded of today that can help you be a great dad—even to adult children, if applicable?
