Friends: Risks and Rewards

Ecclesiastes 4:9-12; Proverbs 20:6, 27:6, 9, 17; 17:17; 18:24;
John 11:43-44; 15:9-15

1. How many close friends do you have—the kind you can call at 2:00 AM and they would come running? Can you give an example?
2. What are some of the attributes of a true friend described in the texts above that struck you today?
3. Do you agree that three close friends can make up for a multitude of disappointments? What are some ideas you picked up, or have been reminded of, that can help you develop close friendships?
