Time Management: Doing God's Will

*John 15:8, Matthew 13:23, Colossians 4:5, Matthew 26:41
2 Samuel 5:17-25, Proverbs 16:1-4*

1. Do you think you have managed your time wisely or not, and why?
2. In today's Scriptures we see that God wants us to lead productive lives. And, of course, that's certainly what we want too. How does Matthew 26:41 describe the problem? How did King David handle the problem of not knowing God's will in 2 Samuel 5:17-25?
3. Which of the following best describes how you decide what to do, and give an example of how "Pray, then plan" can help you with a current time management/God's will situation?
 - No plan, no prayer.
 - Plan, no pray.
 - Plan, then pray.
 - Pray, then plan.
