Why the “Happiness” Gospel is Letting You Down

Why the “Happiness” Gospel is Letting You Down

Matt. 27:45-56, John 19:28-30, Luke 23:44-49, Mark 15:33-41

Matt. 27:45-56, John 19:28-30, Luke 23:44-49, Mark 15:33-41

1. How has being promised that Jesus will make you “happy, healthy, and wealthy” distorted your thinking, either now or in the past?
2. Beginning with the death of our Founder, Christians have always been a persecuted people. Today’s passages tease out the details surrounding the death of our Leader. Why such a detailed description? How does a detailed description of his death affect you differently than a passing reference would?
3. A gospel without suffering is a gospel without Christ. None of us should go out of our way to suffer, but neither should we be surprised when we do. Why is suffering something we should expect? How should we respond when we suffer? Is suffering ever good?
