TABLE TALK:

1. Do you think that most men live with self-control and self-awareness? Why or why not? Why is this hard today?
2. Does Satan seem real to you? Why or why not? How have you had to resist him in the past?
3. “We should not be eager for the end of suffering, but rather the goal of suffering.” What is the goal of suffering and temptation according to Peter? How have you seen this in your life or the lives of other men?
4. Jesus commands us to be sober-minded, watchful, resist the devil, and stand firm. He promises to restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish. Are you allowing Him to do that in your life? Where do you need to repent today to be the man that He is calling you to be?
