1. “If you’re not happy in your work, you’re probably not happy anywhere.” How close is that to your personal experience? Please explain.
2. Ephesians 1:11 says that God is working everything out in conformity to the purpose of His will. Do you fully understand and truly believe that God is behind you getting the work you have, and that He gave you this work for a reason? Explain your answer.
3. God gives each of us motivated interests, natural abilities, acquired abilities, and spiritual gifts. Would God give you work that goes against how you are bent? How closely does your present work align with how you’ve been wired and trained? Should you stay or make a change? Is there anything about the value of your existing work that you have overlooked?
