

Series: 1st Peter – Walking With Jesus in a Weird World

Session 5: Things To Do While Living In Rome

1 Peter 2:11-25

NOTES:

The Big Idea: _____

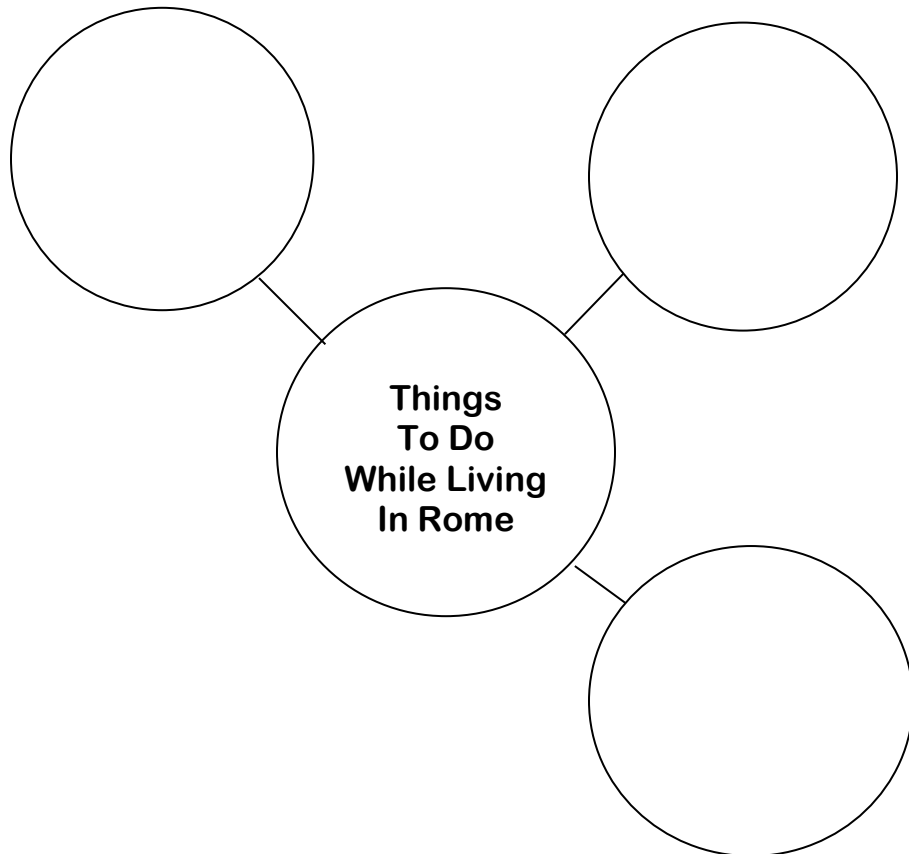

TABLE TALK:

1. In what ways is modern America like ancient Rome? How is it different?
2. In today's text we are once again called "aliens and strangers." Can you give an example of feeling like an alien and stranger in the world? In verses 11-12, what does Peter tell us to do, and not do, that answers the question, "How should we then live?"
3. The rest of the book of Peter builds a "list" of ways to walk like a priest and be a thermostat of integrity and truth in an increasingly "Romanized" and weird world. What's the one thing talked about today that, fully understood and truly believed, would help you most?
