The Man Who Could No Longer Remain Silent

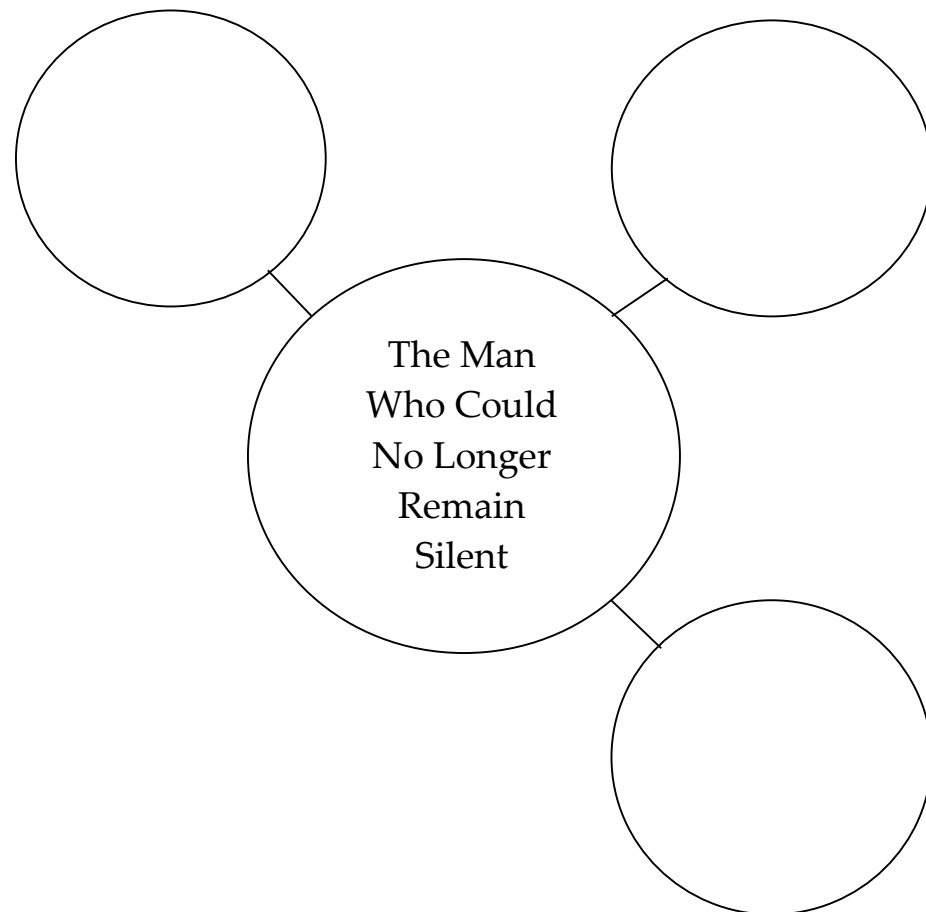

The Man Who Could No Longer Remain Silent

John 19:31-42, Matt. 27:57-60, Mark 15:42-46, Luke 23:50-54

1. How would you describe yourself—as bold, timid, or something else? Explain your answer.
2. Why was Joseph of Arimathea a secret disciple? What led him to “out” himself and become bold?
3. What is the issue that has got, or is getting, you to the point you can no longer remain silent? Perhaps it’s something like the issue mentioned today of “disciples not making disciples.” What are you doing, or do want to do, to not miss your moment? What’s a practical next step for you?
