Galatians 5:7, 9, Colossians 2:8*

Questions

1. Do you think people revere and believe the U. S. Constitution more because we still have the original? Do you think people would have less confidence if all we had were copies—however carefully documented? Now apply that same reasoning to the Bible.
2. We're looking at the Bible from 12 different angles. Today's perspective is that the Bible is "the most scrutinized and authenticated, scientifically and academically studied, carefully documented and transmitted piece of literature in history by an exponential factor, which makes the internal claim to be the written word of God." What comments does this perspective bring to mind?
3. What can be the practical impact of having great confidence that God's word has accurately and reliably found its way into the Bible you hold in your hands?
