Questions

1. What's "new" about the New Testament?
2. Each week we're looking at the Bible from a different angle. Today's perspective is that "the Old and New Testaments are like two pieces of a treasure map -neither complete without the other, both presenting the same message from different perspectives, anticipation in the Old Testament yielding to fulfillment in the New Testament, the Christ of prophecy becoming the Christ of history." To what extent have you understood the relationship between Old and New Testaments, and what is something that cleared up for you today?
3. Have you been a Whole Bible guy or a New Testament guy, and why? Anything said today that will change your approach?
