Questions

1. Do you like to read the Bible, and why or why not?
2. This week's perspective is that the Bible consists of "a handful of major themes that unify the Scriptures, reinforced and nuanced by constant repetition, so simple a child can grasp them, yet so deep no scholar can plumb their depth, each and every page illuminating and amplifying a different facet of God, his salvation, and our discipleship." The Bible is called "special revelation" from God. Revelation of what?
3. Are you on God's mission for you? Explain your answer.
