1. "I already feel guilty just reading the title to this message. I know I should read the Bible more. I try. I really do. But I have trouble sticking with it, my mind wanders, and so I bail." How close to home does this hit, and why?
2. Based on how long you've been a Christian, should you be more spiritually mature by now? What have you heard this morning to better equip you with the skill and the will to be a warrior?
3. This week's perspective is that the Bible is "the weapon of choice for the man who wants to be a warrior for God. With no disrespect to the Afghan army, give me a Marine. It's about the training. It's about the skill and the will to win the battle. Children drink milk. Give me meat." How badly do you want it, and what are you willing to do to get it?
