Decisions: How To Make The Right Choice

Matthew 26:36-44, 4:1-10; Hebrew 4:15; Proverbs 3:5-6, 16:1-4, 21:30; Philippians 4:13

1. Describe one very good decision you have made. What factors contributed to its success?
2. In this lesson we described a biblical process for not only making the right decisions, but also for how to not make the wrong decisions. Which of the verses discussed resonated most with you, and why?
3. Most of us will only make a handful of truly major decisions in the course of a year. "Do I change jobs, move, get married, have children, take on a personal ministry, buy a car, lower my lifestyle," and so on? What is the major decision you are, or will be, facing this year? What have you learned or been reminded of today that will help you choose wisely?
