The Big Idea: _____

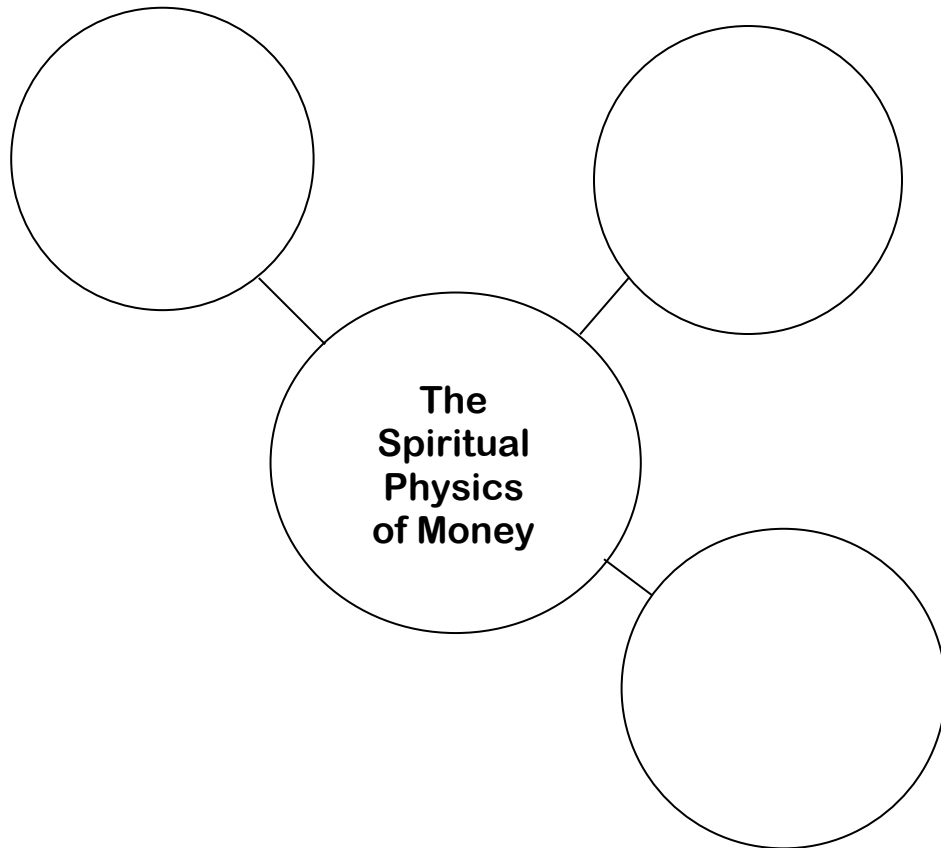

TABLE TALK:

1. Where have you historically struggled with money — earning, spending, keeping, generosity, making it your master or idol, saving, investing, or something else? Explain your answer.
2. What do today's Scriptures teach about the way money is inextricably part of your relationship with God?
3. What is "the one thing" about how you think about and/or handle money that you would most like to change, and why? What have you learned or been reminded of today that can release the power of the Gospel to help you make that change? Do you have a next step in mind and, if yes, what is it?
