TABLE TALK:

1. How many reasons can you name for why people suffer? Give an example of someone who has suffered, but not because of their own sins.
2. In John 5:14, what did Jesus say to the man he healed, and why is that important? What did he not say? How is what was said, and not said, in today's text similar to the exchange in John 21:20-23?
3. Who do you know, including yourself, who needs to be set free from the bondage of assuming they're suffering because they've done something wrong?
