TABLE TALK:

1. What man doesn't like to look at a beautiful woman? At the same time, would you agree we live in a culture that glorifies lust and sexual immorality? How can today's Big Idea today help reconcile those two points? "Looking is not lusting, until you're burning with the same passion David* had for Bathsheba."
2. Does your view of how to channel sexual desire match up with today's Scriptures? What have you heard today that's new to you, or that you're glad to be reminded of?
3. We were urged not to pretend that "me and Jesus" and a lot of prayer, though important, are enough to conquer lust. What other biblical and practical steps do you take to exercise self-control over sexual desire? Have you heard any other ideas today that might be helpful?
