

Series: A Deeper Walk With God

Session 5

A Relationship with God That Doesn't Depend on Human Success

Genesis 24, Matthew 25:14-30

NOTES:

The Big Idea: _____

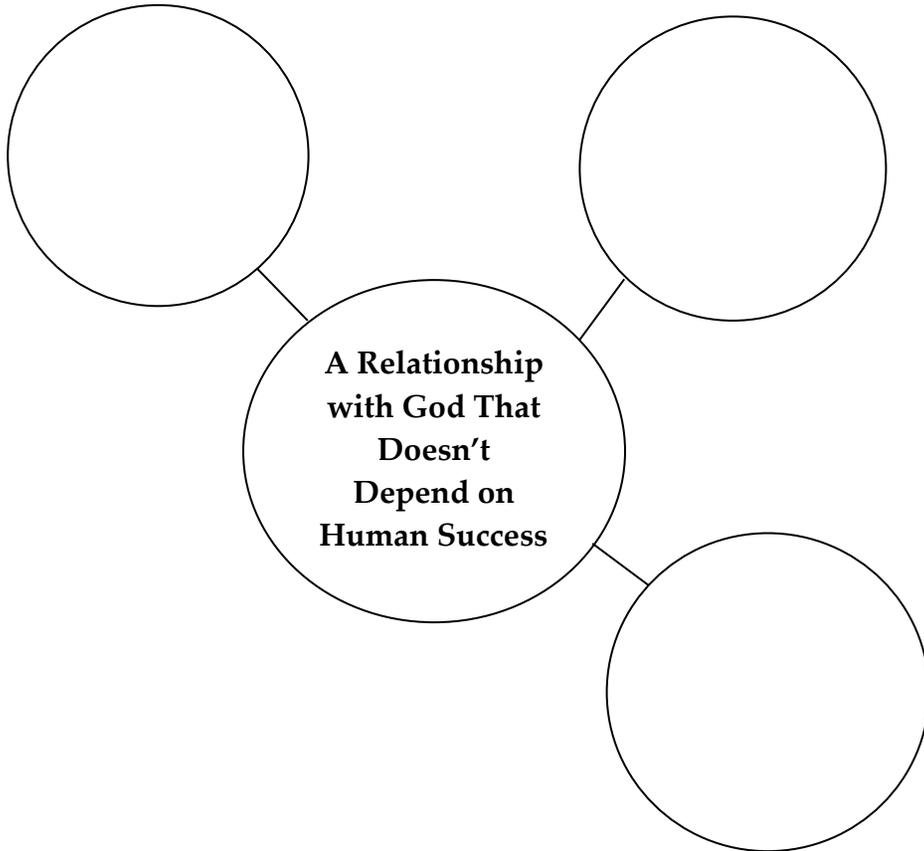

TABLE TALK:

1. How have you measured success for most of your life, and how has that affected your relationship with God? Check appropriate answers:

___ Based on the effort you put forth

___ Based on the level at which you perform

___ Based on the results your produce

___ Based on how you're doing compared to others

___ Based on faithfulness to how you understand God's will and calling on your life

___ Other _____

2. What is the difference between faithfulness and success as described in Genesis 24? Can you be successful without being faithful? Can you be faithful without being humanly successful?

3. From the story of Abraham's servant, we discussed ways to create the highest likelihood that our faithfulness will succeed. What have you learned, or rethought, today that will change your approach, and specifically how? CALL TO ACTION: Memorize today's Big Idea and repeat to yourself whenever you doubt you're measuring success God's way.
