Stories and Strategies to Build Your Family and Career

Session 4: Abiding in the Father's Presence

Ed Kobel

John 10:10, John 10:11, John 15:1-5, Psalm 23:1

NOTES:

TABLE TALK:

1. Do you have a mentor? A true mentor is someone who holds you accountable to the highest level. Being held accountable at the highest level means allowing someone to interrupt a pattern that would otherwise become destructive in our lives.
2. Is there a pattern in your life right now that if it is not interrupted it will become destructive to you and the ones you love? A pattern is something that occurs in your life 3 or more times. If it happens once, it's an accident. If it happens twice, it's a coincidence. If it happens 3 or more times, it's a pattern.
3. Are you willing to do whatever it takes to interrupt these patterns to become the healthiest version of yourself? The greatest gift that you will give the world is the healthiest version of you!
