

Series: The Four Voices
The Four Voices for Broken Men
Ephesians 4:11-16, Luke 11:11-13

NOTES:

The Big Idea: _____

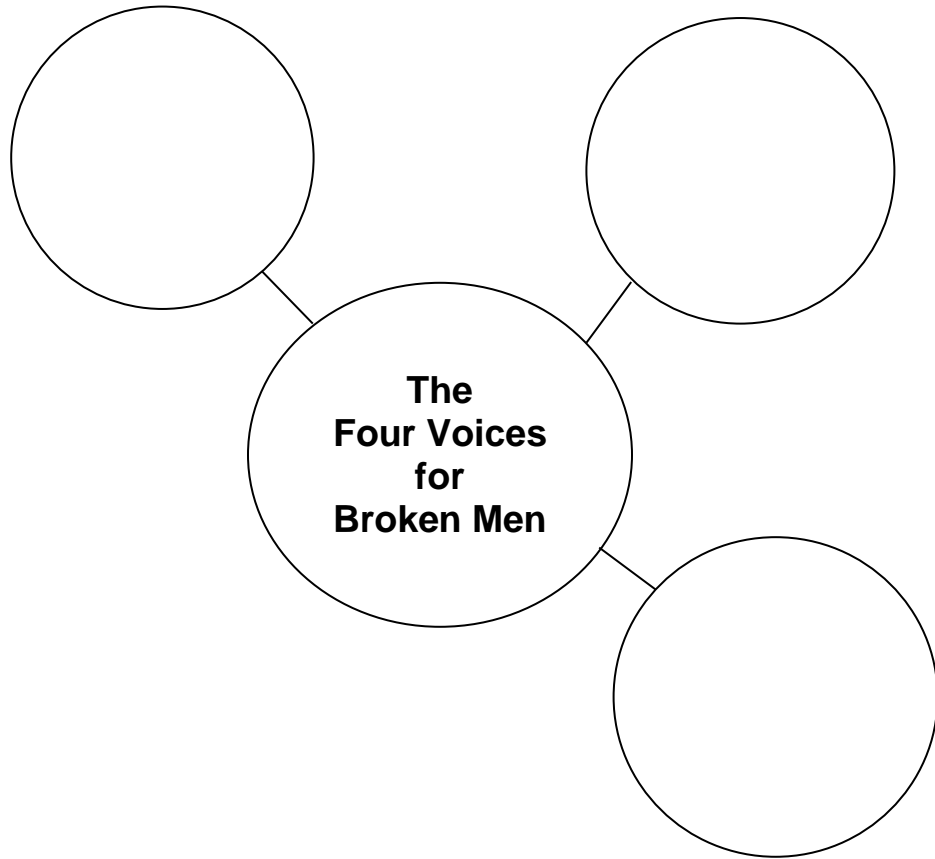

TABLE TALK:

1. What is something you are very experienced at doing well? For example, a sport, hobby, work, fixing things, chef, teaching, soldiering, marriage, fathering, world travel. What is your advantage over someone who is not as experienced?

What's one thing that would change if you become (or already are) as experienced with the four voices as what you answered above?

2. Discipleship is how we get that experience. Ephesians 4:11-16 offers a lofty and succinct explanation of the discipleship process and its desired outcomes. According to the text, and especially verse 14, how does discipleship equip you to take control of the narrative in your head?

- 15 _____
- 16 _____

3. Do you agree that regardless of why you're broken, what happens next is your responsibility? If so, where are you broken right now? Which voices are speaking to you, and what is the adjustment you should make?
