TABLE TALK:

1. What was troubling you just before and after becoming a Christian? (emotions, state of mind, questions, etc.)
2. What conclusions can you draw about yourself and other people from verse 23? What is God's part to bring about our salvation in verses 24-26? Based on your previous answer, what point is Paul making in verse 27 by asking, "Where, then, is boasting?"
3. Countless men in your orbit are right now feeling just like you did just before you became a Christian. From road ragers to tire changers to business owners, God is awakening men and making them hungry. Today's Big Idea, "Sharing the gospel is one beggar telling another beggar where he found bread." Have you found the bread? If so, are you being faithful to share with other men how they can find it too? Did you pray and put your faith in Jesus during the message? If so, who can you ask to help you grow?
