Romans 5:12-21

NOTES:

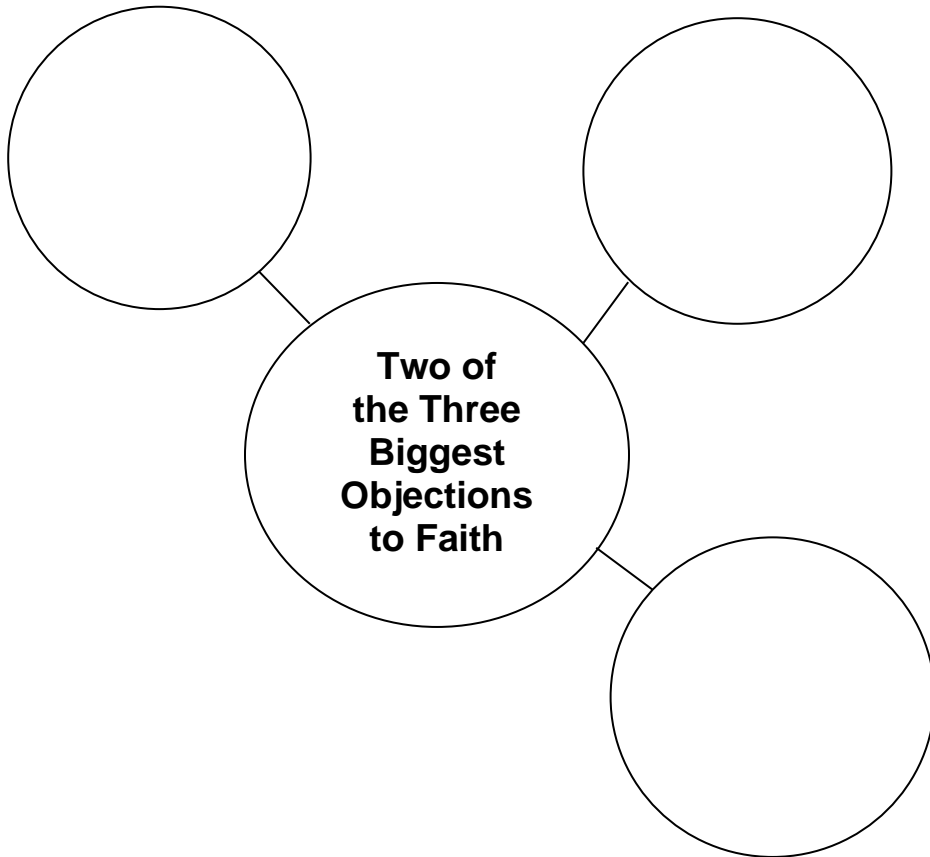

TABLE TALK:

The Big Idea: _____

1. Please think deeply about your answer: Would the people around you say you try to fix their behavior or show them Christ? What's the difference between those two approaches?

2. What verses in today's text impute the sins of Adam to the whole human race? Why would that be an objection to belief? What verses in today's text help explain why God reduced himself to human flesh for a season? Why would that be an objection to belief?

3. The Big Idea is, "God calls us to show men Christ, not fix their behavior." What's one thing you could do differently that would make people feel more "safe" around you?
