

Series: ROMANS 5-8: Living Your Life God's Way

When It Feels Like Your Sufferings Never End

Romans 8:18-27

NOTES:

The Big Idea: _____

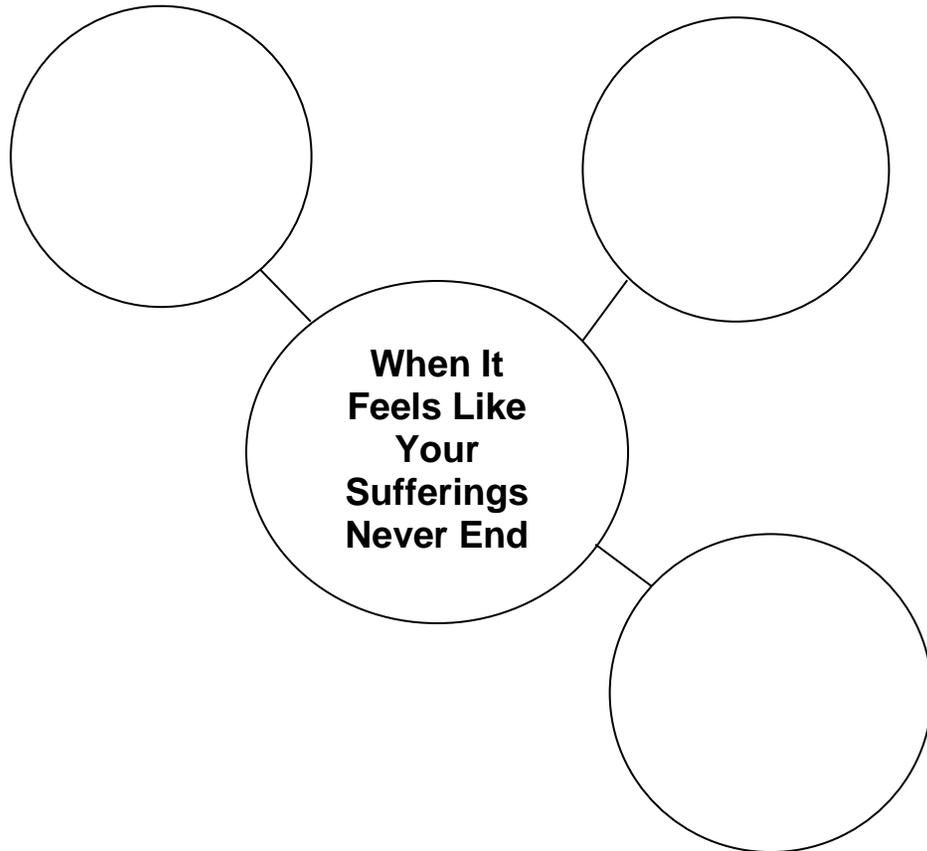

TABLE TALK:

1. If you could sail away to an idyllic place, where would you want to go, and why?
2. Now back to the real world. We all know none of us are ever going to escape the sufferings of this world and the groans that come with it. What is the difference between the reason the world groans in verses 20-22 and the reason you as a believer groan in verse 23? BONUS: How many of the “first fruits of the Spirit” (verse 23) can you name?
3. What does it mean that the Spirit is interceding for you with groans so deep that words cannot express? How might you go about uniting your groans with his groans (pray in the Spirit)? As a disciple-maker what have you picked up on that can help you reach other men, your family, and friends?
