TABLE TALK:

1. What do you think are the non-negotiables to being a Christian?
2. If you would like to be a strong man, relying on the strength of Christ, then ask your group to be honest with you and tell you if they have witnessed you being judgmental or condescending about other Christians who hold different viewpoints than you. Even more so, go home and ask your spouse and children. Only the strongest are willing to humble themselves in confession and repentance.
3. Would a believer who supports Black Lives Matter and a believer who supports Blue Lives Matter both be welcomed in your men's group? Why or why not?
